Services and Memberships: HRdownloads provides various products and services ("Services"), which all require a customer to obtain a membership. These Terms of Use apply to all membership customers, including those using HRdownloads' Services on a 'trial' basis.

All HRdownloads member Services are sold on a one or two-year membership basis. Prior to the end of the one or two year membership period, HRdownloads will contact the member to inquire if they would like to renew their membership. HRdownloads does not auto-renew any of its Services.

Customer: HRdownloads memberships are not for individual use and are available only to business entities and other employer organizations. A customer account can only be set-up under a corporation or NFP name. Individual members are set-up as "users" under the main membership customer, the corporation or NFP. The number of users depends on the selected service (package). Individual users must all be employees / owners of the business or organization.

Buying groups and Franchise operations where memberships are intended to be used by non-head or corporate office are provided a customized membership user structure and pricing.
